

University of Arizona Museum of Art Lecture Series

Oro Valley Public Library

2 – 3 p.m.

Wednesday, January 4

To Have the World in Hand: The Art of Watercolor

Presented by Tammy Bearden

One hundred years of landscapes, cityscapes, portraits and still lifes using various techniques and styles of watercolor painting as the medium evolved through the ages.

Wednesday, February 1

Portraits Through the Ages

Presented by Francis Chen

The art of portrait painting from the Renaissance to the present featuring the University of Arizona Museum's extensive collection.

Wednesday, March 7

Twisting Traditions in Sculpture

Presented by Fleurette and Marc Wallach

Differences between painting and sculpture and the various techniques and styles used by the sculptors in our collection including Henry Moore, Auguste Rodin, Alexander Calder, Joan Miro, Pablo Picasso and many others.

Wednesday, April 4

Music and Dance

Presented by Jacquelyn Feller

Discover how 19th & 20th century artists used Sound and movement in their art

Wednesday, May 2

It's All About Children - Just look at those kids and what they can tell you!

Presented by Kate Phillips

Presentation will show you how artists have sought to express their artistic and personal vision through images of individual children and general reflections on childhood.

