Oro Valley Names New Communications Administrator

ORO VALLEY, ARIZ (July 30, 2007) — David Andrews, town manager for Oro Valley, announced that Mary Davis has been named communications administrator for the town. Ms. Davis will handle all internal and external communications for the Town, including media relations, publications, speaking engagements and other community outreach and programs. She will begin her full-time position with the town effective September 1.

Ms. Davis was most recently the public relations director for The Caliber Group in Tucson. She holds a bachelor's degree in Mass Communications with a minor in English, and has over 20 years experience in public relations and marketing for both the private and public sectors.

A former resident of Delaware, Ms. Davis and her family moved to Tucson in May of 2004.
