Oro Valley Seeks Applicants for Municipal Property Corporation BOD

ORO VALLEY, ARIZ (Nov. 19, 2007) — The town of Oro Valley is now accepting applications from local citizens who wish to serve on the Municipal Property Corporation (MPC) board. Directors must be residents of Oro Valley and able to serve a three-year term.

The MPC is a non-profit corporation created by the town to construct and finance public facilities in accordance with specification approved by the town council. The MPC sells bonds in order to obtain necessary funds. Meetings are held on an as-needed basis.

Applications for the MPC are available at the Oro Valley Town Center, 11000 N. La Canada Drive or at the Town Clerk's website at <http://www.orovalleyaz.gov/TownClerk>. For more information, call the Town Clerk's office at (520) 229-4700. Applications must be received by 5 p.m. Mon., Dec. 10, 2007.
