

PRESS RELEASE

TOWN SEEKS VOLUNTEER FOR STORMWATER UTILITY COMMISSION

May 30, 2007

The Town of Oro Valley is accepting applications from interested citizens to serve on the Town's Storm Water Utility Commission. The deadline for application is Friday, June 15, 2007.

The Oro Valley Storm Water Utility Commission is the official advisory body that makes recommendations to the Town Council regarding Stormwater management, planning, capital improvements, and rate structuring. The Commission meets on the 3rd Thursday of each month.

The Stormwater Utility Commission would prefer citizens who have experience in civic affairs or engineering. However, all interested citizens are encouraged to apply for the positions.

Interested volunteers may obtain an application from the Town Clerk's office at 11000 N. La Canada, or by phoning 229-4700. The forms are also available for download from the Town Clerk's website:

http://www.townoforovalley.com/TownClerk/oro_valley_citizen_volunteer_app.htm. The deadline for submitting the completed application is June 15, 2007.
