Oro Valley Board of Adjustment is Seeking Applicants

ORO VALLEY, Ariz. (June 24, 2008) — The Town of Oro Valley has extended applications for volunteers to fill three positions on the town's Board of Adjustment. The two-year terms expire July 2010. Applicants must be residents of the town of Oro Valley.

The Board of Adjustment is a quasi-judicial board that has the power to review and decide on administrative decisions or zoning requirements that create unnecessary hardships in the development of property because of exceptional or extraordinary conditions. Unlike other boards or commissions, the Board of Adjustment makes the final decision on items that come before it. The Board of Adjustment meets on the fourth Tuesday of every month at 3 p.m.

Applications for the Board of Adjustment are available at the Oro Valley Town Hall, 11000 N. La Cañada Drive or at the Town Clerk's website at http://www.townoforovalley.com/TownClerk/oro_valley_citizen_volunteer_app.htm. The deadline for submitting the completed application is July 25, 2008.
