Oro Valley Seeks Volunteer to Represent Town on PAG Committee

ORO VALLEY, Ariz. (Sept. 19, 2008) — The Town of Oro Valley is seeking applications for volunteers to represent the town on the Environmental Planning Advisory Committee (EPAC) for the Pima Association of Governments (PAG). The two-year term expires 2010. Applicants must be residents of Oro Valley.

The EPAC provides information to and coordinates among other jurisdictions and members in order to advise the PAG Regional Council, Management Committee and executive director on regional and environmental issues. The committee meets the first Friday of each month at 9:30 a.m. in the PAG offices downtown. For more information on the committee, go to www.pagnet.org.

Applications for this volunteer opportunity are available at the Oro Valley Town Hall, 11000 N. La Cañada Drive or at the Town Clerk's website at http://www.townoforovalley.com/TownClerk/oro_valley_citizen_volunteer_app.htm. The deadline for submitting the completed application is Oct. 31, 2008.
