Oro Valley Historic Commission Seeking Applicants

ORO VALLEY, ARIZ (Dec. 3, 2008) — The Town of Oro Valley is now accepting applications for volunteers to fill one two-year term on the Town's Historic Preservation Commission. Applicants must be residents of the town of Oro Valley.

The Historic Preservation Commission was formed to promote the educational, cultural and economic welfare of Oro Valley by insuring the preservation of historic buildings, districts, landmarks, structures, documents, photographs and other artifacts that represent the historic background and development of the greater Oro Valley area. The Commission meets the second Monday of every month at 6 p.m. at Town Hall.

Applications for the Historic Preservation Commission are available at the Oro Valley Town Center, 11000 N. La Cañada Drive or at the Town Clerk's website at http://www.townoforovalley.com/TownClerk/oro_valley_citizen_volunteer_app.htm. The deadline for submitting the completed application is Mon., Jan. 5, 2009.
