Telephone Bomb Threat

ORO VALLEY, Ariz. (January 26, 2012) - The Oro Valley Police Department is on scene at Copper Creek Elementary School, 11620 N. Copper Spring Trail, in response to a telephone threat. Police are currently investigating, and it is expected that this matter will be resolved no later than 9:30 a.m. today. All children are safe and separated from the building. Parents are being advised that if their children are not yet at school they should keep them until 9:30. If children are already at school, parents should not attempt to retrieve them. Police explosives canines are currently conducting a search. No explosives have been located; this was just a telephone threat.
