Oro Valley Police Explorers win in competition

ORO VALLEY, Ariz. (July 23, 2013) - The Oro Valley Police Department (OVPD) is proud to announce the results of the Law Enforcement Explorer Post Advisors Association Competition. The event was held in Denver, Colorado, where twenty-two different Explorer Posts from throughout the United States competed in a variety of law enforcement scenarios over the course of three days. The Oro Valley Explorer Post placed in the following scenarios:

- 1st and 5th Place - High Risk Stops (Two Teams)
- 1st, 3rd and 5th Place - Domestic Violence (Three Teams)
- 3rd Place - High Risk Entries
- 3rd and 4th Place - Hostage Negotiations (Two Teams)
- 4th Place - Female Obstacle Course
- 5th Place - Knock and Talk

The Explorer Post consists of teenagers between the ages of 14-20 who participate in drills and trainings that allow them to be exposed to the law enforcement profession. If you would like to learn more about OVPD Explorer Post #11 visit our website at www.ovpdexplorers.com.
