OVPD Chief Sharp named to National Traffic Advisory Group

ORO VALLEY, Ariz. (June 9, 2014) - The Oro Valley Police Department (OVPD) is pleased to announce that Chief Daniel G. Sharp has been named as the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) representative to the Traffic Incident Management Technical Advisory Group for the American Association of State Highway Transportation Officials (AASHTO). AASHTO's mission is to advocate transportation-related policies and provide technical services to support states in their efforts to efficiently and safely move people and goods.

Joseph Farrow, Commissioner, California Highway Patrol, and IACP Highway Safety Committee chair, stated, "I have known Chief Dan Sharp, of the Oro Valley Police Department, for many years and have collaborated with him on many issues related to traffic incident management. As the chair of IACP's Traffic Incident Management subcommittee, Dan has demonstrated his commitment to local and national issues, and will be a valuable addition to the AASHTO's Traffic Incident Management Technical Advisory Committee."

Jennifer Toth, Deputy Director for Transportation for Arizona Department of Transportation, stated, "Chief Sharp has demonstrated tremendous leadership in the advancement of traffic safety, both here in Arizona and nationally. He will play a critical role in the development of strategies and programs designed to improve traffic incident management and reducing vehicle crashes."
