

LISTEN! LAUGH! DANCE! and SING!

Saturday, August 6, 2016

"Peter and the...FOX?!?"

Music & Dance Academy

The Wolf is on a mission to restore his good (bad) name. Maligned for years as the villain of most children's stories, the Wolf is now in danger of losing his identity altogether! Children no longer recognize the Wolf as the bad boy of the beloved children's story by Sergey Prokofieff, Peter and the Wolf. The fox has crept into children's minds, and threatens to leave the Wolf out in the cold! Come join Music and Dance Academy faculty for a new rendition of a favorite tale, which will restore the Wolf to his rightful place of villainy.

Saturday, September 3, 2016

"Princesses, Superheroes and Cowboys...Oh My!"

Tucson Symphony Orchestra String Quartet

Is there a treasure to be found? Does the world need to be saved... again? YES!!! This story begins with YOU, the beautiful princesses, daring superheroes and brave cowboys travelling on a musical journey to find the magical song that will save precious Little Star. Be prepared to search the world and seek help from the most famous composer ever, Mozart!!! Be sure to wear your favorite costume; tiaras, capes and western wear are all suggested! The story is by David Gay with music composed by Iлона Vukovic-Gay.

Saturday, October 1, 2016

"Goldilocks and the Three Bears"

Tucson Symphony Orchestra Piano Trio & Friends

The Bear family was in an uproar. "This is too, too upsetting!" said Papa Bear. "First food burglars, then chair breakers. What could be next? I need to go lie down." Enjoy this delightful retelling of the classic tale composed by TSO violinist Michael Fan.

Saturday, November 5, 2016

"Sailing the High C's"

Tucson Symphony Orchestra Brass Quintet

Come aboard, matey, and join us for a musical voyage on the TSO Brass Quintet Pirate Ship! Come dressed as pirates and be prepared to walk the plank into a sea of pirate-themed music! Let your imagination sail with music from pirate movies, musicals, and the works of great composers.

Saturday, December 3, 2016

"The Tortoise and the Hare"

Tucson Symphony Orchestra Wind Quintet

Tonya the Tortoise has lots of great qualities, but speed was not one of them. However, she was about to race one of the fastest animals she knew - Harriet the Hare! Despite her friends' doubts, she had a feeling she might have exactly what was needed to win the race. Who will emerge victorious? Come join the TSO Wind Quintet for a trio of fables with their new show "Aesop's Adventures!"

Oro Valley Council Chambers

10 AM FREE ADMISSION

The musical magic for kids concerts provide an intimate, interactive experience for young children and their families where they can explore the sights, sounds and workings of instruments and dance.

The Musical Magic for Kids program is brought to you by the generous underwriting support from the Town of Oro Valley

Saturday, January 7, 2017

A Rollicking Rhythmic Romp

Music & Dance Academy

Join Music and Dance Academy faculty members as they dance and drum their way into a rollicking good time! Tap, jazz and modern musical styles will be featured in an interactive and fun program. Audience members will enjoy moving with the beat as well as experiencing playing along with body percussion & instruments. Don't miss this opportunity to play, learn and move!

Saturday, February 4, 2017

at Oro Valley Children's Museum 11015 N. Oracle Road #101

Instrument Petting Zoo

Civic Orchestra of Tucson

Interact with musical instruments and then play at the Children's Museum! * (Admission: During event from 10am—11am—FREE. $6 after the event. Kids under 12 months get in for free)

Saturday, March 4, 2017

"Happiness, Kindness and All Sorts of Good Things!"

Music & Dance Academy

Learn wonderful life lessons about appreciation and kindness through a charming story entitled "I Am Happy Every Time" by Elesha Khan, whose proceeds benefit Syrian children. The Music and Dance Academy presents our lively violin faculty members, Tamara Khachtryan and Fadi Iskandar. Come along on a beautiful journey to happiness!

Saturday, April 1, 2017

"Pip and the Pirate"

Tucson Symphony Orchestra Flute Viola Harp Trio

It was graduation day at the Pirate Academy. "Ye be a true Pirate today, matey! Here be yer certificate. Here be yer parrot." "That's not a parrot!" said the new graduate. "She be too small. I wants a big squawker, not a pip squeaker." "Nay! That be the last one we got. Take 'er or leave 'er." "Please take me," said the tiny bird. I'll make you proud of me." Join us for this new musical adventure by TSO violinist and composer Michael Fan.

Saturday, May 6, 2017

"Tommy Tom-Tom & Chillin' Willie Go to the Zoo"

Tucson Symphony Orchestra Percussion Ensemble

Our old friends Tommy Tom-tom and Chillin' Willie take a field trip to the zoo, where they encounter and befriend Magilla Gorilla and Hicupotomous (the friendly hippo). Join us and learn about the sounds of the animal kingdom.

Saturday, June 3, 2017

"A Musical Journey"

Civic Orchestra of Tucson

Come enjoy a rip roarin' hoedown complete with singing, dancing and live music with fiddler Emily Evans! We will be exploring some cowboy and pioneer songs

For information and details, please contact the Southern Arizona Arts & Cultural Alliance at (520) 797-3959 or visit www.SAACA.org