OVPD Chief Sharp begins his tenure as OV interim town manager

Welcome to our new Interim Town Manager Daniel G. Sharp! When former Town Manager Greg Caton accepted the position of city manager in Grand Junction, Colorado, Oro Valley Town Council appointed OVPD Chief Sharp as interim manager. Sharp's goal as interim is to help the Town continue providing the best service to our residents until a permanent town manager is recruited.

Daniel G. Sharp has served as Chief of Police for the Town of Oro Valley since January 2000. Prior to his appointment as Chief, Sharp spent more than 21 years with the Tucson Police Department, working in virtually every area of the department. ## Business Spotlight: Fleet Feet Sports

By Dave Perry, President/CEO of the Greater Oro Valley Chamber of Commerce

Anne Stancil earned a Ph.D. at the University of Wisconsin. Soon, though, she realized “being a professional academic was not where my heart was, not where my passion was.”

Her heart, her passion were in her feet.

A runner, she worked part-time at a Fleet Feet Sports store in Madison, helping people find just the right running and walking footwear. “I had no idea ... how much you could impact someone with something as simple as fitting them with a good pair of shoes,” Anne says. “I love it.”

Today, she owns Fleet Feet Sports in Oro Valley, which specializes in optimal footwear fits. Clothing, accessories and a passionate staff take clients to the finish line. “We provide a superior customer experience,” a proud Anne said. “Our staff is educated and knowledgeable. They know our products, and how to use them.”

Owning the business has cut into Anne’s running time. But it... fits. “It doesn’t feel like work. I feel very, very lucky.”
